 21. The management reserves the right to refuse the competition of any contestant who has violated the general rules or has been dishonest in the competitions of the National Western Stock Show.
 22. DOGS - It is recommended by the National Western Stock Show (NWSS) that pets are left at home. If pets do travel with you, owners assume all liability for pets brought to the show. Pets are not permitted to be loose on competition grounds and all pets must be on leashes or otherwise contained. No dogs will be allowed in the barns or arenas at any time. Any pet found loose will be detained by the show until a fine is paid. Any pet owner whose pet disrupts the show will be required to pay a $100.00 fine to NWSS (Exception: service animals aiding individuals or those dogs under contract with the NWSS). As a courtesy, pet owners are required to pick up and dispose of all animal waste in the appropriate areas.

23. All PRCA cards and Gold cards will grant ground access only. Not a seat ticket.
24. Each contestant will be given a back number, which must be worn and/or displayed at all times in the competition arena and surrounding backstage areas.
25. Coats and jackets must be removed before entering the arena so that the back number is visible at all times.
26. When a contestant is finished competing he should return to the chute area and exit the arena.
27. Friends and families of contestants are not allowed to enter the arena at any time.
28. Arena is to be clear of non-competing contestants at all times.
29. All contestants may receive one ticket per performance in the performances in which they are competing (limited number of tickets). Contestant tickets must sit in designated areas.
30. Contestant may receive one helper pass. Helper must display pass at all times when in arena or behind chutes. Helper will abide by same ground rules as contestant. All helpers must sign a release to receive a pass. Anyone who transfers back number or helper pass will be subject to a $500 fine.
31. Contestants with family or friends traveling with them must visit the check-in trailer to sign a waiver and receive a companion general admission ticket in order to gain access to rodeo hospitality and other restricted areas.
32. Contestants must be ready when called by judges and/or Chute Boss (in agreement with judges).
33. Parking of contestant's vehicles and horse trailers must be in area designated by the NWSS parking lot operator. NWSS will issue a parking pass to each contestant, granting them access to the parking lot during their drawn bracket. Contestant must revisit the check-in trailer to receive a new parking pass should the contestant progress to the semi-finals.
